

Wednesday, July 25, 2007

Close WindowGREEN VALLEY
NEWS
AND SUN
gvnews.comPrint VersionPrint PageWEDNESDAY JULY 25, 2007

Last modified:

Thursday, July 19, 2007 10:19 PM MDT

Patti O'Berry, owner of DaZee's high-end resale shop, welcomes customers to DaZee's Too at 221 W. Duval Rd., directly opposite the main DaZee's shop in the small plaza nestled between Bill's Home Service and National Auto Glass. DaZee's is a high-end resale shop whose proceeds are used to support building/purchasing a domestic violence shelter/safe house and all related advocacy work. DaZee's Too stock cruise wear and dressier clothing, as well as shoes, jewelry and accessories.

Rick McCallum | Green Valley News

Photo provided by Central Arizona Project
This aerial photo shows the end of the Central Arizona Project pipeline at the Pima Mine Road recharge station northwest of Sahuarita. The 336-mile-long pipeline provides water for many communities in Arizona. The five spreading ponds store the water in this region for use in future droughts.

Green Valley News & Sun

101-42 La Canada Drive, Green Valley, AZ 85622
520-625-5511 (phone) 520-625-8046 (fax)

Close Window

